Check the exams you have passed:

Qual	Prelim I	Prelim II

This semester, do you plan to take (or present):

Qual	Prelim I	Prelim II	Defense

Course #	Course Name	Requested Credits
9182/9282	Independent Study (1-6 credits)
9994	Preliminary Exam Prep (for Prelim I, 1-6 credits)
9998	Pre-dissertation Research (for Prelim II, 1-6 credits)
9999	Dissertation Research (1-6 credits)

- Note: PhD students must follow the sequence of Qual, Prelim I, Prelim II and Defense. Failure at any stage will prevent you from advancing to the next sequence. CIS 9994, 9998, & 9999 can be repeated. Students must have at least 6 credits total between these 3 classes (two of which must be in 9999). Each candidate has a maximum of 7 years to complete the PhD program. Extension of time may be granted upon petition to the Graduate School.
- Full Time Status for International Students: The standard full-time load is nine (9) credits. A TA and/or RA can register for 6 credits. (* There is a gray area for 10 hour/week TA or RAs. We need to confirm with ISSS BEFORE put these in writing. Justin) After completing PhD credit requirements (48 credits), you can register for 1 credit and still be considered full time.
